- The contract is subject to your right of cancellation (see below).
- The Supplier may change these terms of sale without notice to you in relation to future sales.

Description and price of the goods

- The description and price of the goods you order will be as shown on the Supplier's website at the time you place your order.
- The goods are subject to availability. If on receipt of your order the goods you have ordered are not available in stock, we will contact you to advise of estimated availability date, or offer the chance of cancellation. If contact cannot be made or a response is not given, the contract will be terminated and any monies paid will be refunded back via the original payment method
- Every effort is made to ensure that prices shown on the Supplier's website are accurate at the time you place your order. If an error is found within 14 days of accepting your order, the Supplier will inform you as soon as possible and offer you the option of reconfirming your order at the correct price, or cancelling your order. If the Supplier does not receive an order confirmation within 14 days of informing you of the error, the order will be cancelled automatically. If you cancel the order, or if the order is cancelled automatically due to the expiry of the 14 day period, the Supplier will refund or re-credit you for any sum that has been paid by you or debited from your credit card for the goods.
- In addition to the price, you may be required to pay a delivery charge for the goods.

Payment

- Payment for the goods and delivery charges can be made by any method shown on the Supplier's website at the time you place your order. Payment shall be due before the delivery date and time for payment shall be a fundamental term of this agreement, breach of which shall entitle the Supplier to terminate the contract immediately.

ii. There will be no delivery until cleared funds are received.

iii. Payments shall be made by you without any deduction whatsoever unless you have a valid court order requiring an amount equal to such deduction to be paid by the Supplier to you.

Delivery

- The goods you order will be delivered to the address you give when you place your order, and a signature will be required.
- If delivery cannot be made to your address for reasons under the Supplier's control the Supplier will inform you as soon as possible.
- If you deliberately fail to take delivery of the goods (otherwise than by reason of circumstances under control of the Supplier) then without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to the Supplier, the Supplier may: a. store the goods until actual delivery and charge you for reasonable costs (including insurance) of storage; or b. sell the goods at the best readily obtainable price and (after deducting all reasonable storage and selling expenses) account to you for any excess over the price you agreed to pay for the goods or charge you for any shortfall below the price you agreed to pay for the goods.

- If you fail to take delivery because you have cancelled your contract under the Distance Selling Regulations the Supplier shall refund or re-credit you within 30 days for any sum that has been paid by you or debited from your credit card for the goods. On exercising your right to cancel you shall be required to return the goods to the Supplier. Should you fail to return the goods, the Supplier reserves the right to deduct any direct costs incurred by the Supplier in retrieving the goods as a result of such failure.
- Every effort will be made to deliver the goods as soon as possible after your order has been accepted. However, the Supplier will not be liable for any loss or damage suffered by you through reasonable or unavoidable delay in delivery. In this case, the Supplier will inform you as soon as possible.
- Upon receipt of your order you will be asked to sign for the goods received in good condition. If the package does not appear to be in good condition then please refuse the delivery. If you are unable to check the contents of your delivery at the point of delivery then please sign for the parcel as "UNCHECKED". Failure to do so may affect any warranty claims that you make thereafter.

PLEASE NOTE: The courier will attempt delivery, and a signature is required on delivery. If attempts at delivery are failed resulting in a returned parcel then the cost of outward delivery, the return charge and any other charges will be deductible from the refund due.

- Overseas Customers may be liable to customs and/or duty import charges, for which the Supplier takes no responsibility. Payment of any such charges must be made directly and as advised by the relevant delivery company
- Refusal by the Customer to pay these charges which results in a return of the goods will result in a deduction in refund of the initial carriage charge (as detailed on the order), and the return cost charged to the Supplier by the relevant delivery company, as well as any directly related additional fees which will be proved by the Supplier. In the case of custom/ special orders which have their own returns policy, a further refund deduction may also then be applicable.
